COLORADO WATER CONGRESS

NATIVE AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIP

In Honor Of
Leonard Burch

FOR
COLORADO WATER LAW SEMINAR

The late Leonard Burch, long time Southern Ute chairman and board member, was a most extraordinary leader for Native Americans in the United States. Mr. Burch left a legacy of statesmanship as it related to Colorado water policies. This scholarship will be awarded to a member of the Native American community who desires to provide leadership on behalf of his community in water matters.

The recipient will receive a full scholarship to the Annual CWC Seminar on Colorado Water Law. Individuals interested in applying for the Burch Scholarship should use this form for application.

The deadline for filing an application is Wednesday, December 9, 2009
